COMPLAINT

INTRODUCTION

The Plaintiff commenced proceedings at the Middlesex Superior Court with a Complaint dated 11/27/2017. After unlawful pre-filing delays, it was approved for filing. Tracking order was issued without Summons. The case was scheduled to be disposed of on 04/12/2021; service of process should have been served and returned on 07/10/2018. Surprisingly, the first Defendant originated a dismissal order on 04/12/2018. [C.f. App. 1] Those represent judicial and representation/al estoppels, indeed! The Plaintiff submitted a Rule 60(b)(4) under Rule 9A accordingly timely. [App. 2 omitted] The Defendant opposed it tepidly or strangely – evasion of particularization on the ratio-decidenti for the dismissal! [App. 3] The first Defendant denied it without a hearing on 05/04/2018 perfunctorily in stark violation of “The Requirement for Due Process Clause” on 05/04/2018. [C.f. App. 4] That is not in keeping with the Massachusetts’ and the United States’ Judicial Codes of Conduct. Evidently, the first Defendant deemed it judicious to condemn the Plaintiff to flagrant injury and error of law or blatant miscarriage of justice devoid of an iota of moral qualm or gleefully. Such overt judicial discrimination and negligence associates with legal's consequences.

More, the bases of the dismissal originally made no legal sense taking everything into consideration. It will be advisable to noting that the first Defendant had been running amok with the law against the Plaintiff. On July 29th, 2013 he issued a pre-filing order against the Plaintiff without pre- and post- deprivation hearing in compliance with the First Circuit and Ninth Circuit stipulations on the matter in question. [App. 5] About 2013, he had engaged on the dismissal of the Plaintiff's cases at the Essex Superior Court in stark violation of the law or in stark violations of the Plaintiff's Civil Rights Act of 1961. Sadly, the first Defendant has been under the impression that that he will preside over others unprofessional acts and his will not be litigated against and adjudicated in the self-same manners he adjudicated over the ones of others. Glory, the exists neither quasi nor absolute judicial immunity on acting "out of all jurisdiction" or ultra vires. It behooves any reasonable person to ensuring that "Justice will be done and be seen to be done," at all material times and no matter whose ox will be gored. The second Defendant is included for aiding and abetting injustice. Central to her oath office, she should not be an incubator for injustice in/directly despite the practical benefits to her.

PARTIES

The Plaintiff resides in the Suffolk County – Massachusetts. His contact address will be as stated below. The first Defendant is a judge at the Massachusetts' Middlesex Superior Court. His address for the official capacity basis will be: Massachusetts' Attorney General, Government Bureau/Trial Division, One Ashburton Place, Boston – MA 02108. On individual capacity, it will be: Middlesex Superior Court, 200 Trade Center, 2nd floor, Woburn – MA 01801. On the second Defendant, her contact address for individual and official capacities will be: Town Counsel, 333 Washington Street, 6th Floor, Brookline – MA 04712445.

JURISDICTION

That exists on constitutional, statutory and procedural bases. Some will be cited, indeed! [Mass. Const. Arts. 6, 10, 10, 12 and 15; G.L.c. 12 Secs. 11H-11J; G.L.c. 93 Secs. 10 and 102; G.L.c. 151B; G.L.c. 258 Secs. 1-10; Mass. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(1)(3)(4)(5)(6); 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1361 and 2680(h); 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1981-86; ...]

VENUE

That exists indisputably! [28 U.S.C. Sec. 1391]

BASES OF COMPLAINT

- 01) That the first Defendant's actions exposed the Plaintiff to blatant miscarriage of justice.
- 02) That the first Defendant's actions qualify for "out of all jurisdiction" and deprived him quasi and absolute judicial immunity.
- 03) That amongst the first Defendant's bases for his Order of Dismissal was venue and it existed vividly thus G.L.c. 223 Sec. 1 as precedented in the case of Stephen Bolton v. James Kratz, 54 Mass. App. Ct. 193 (2002).
- 04) That amongst the bases for the first Defendant Order of Dismissal was statute of limitations; he knew not that "Statute of limitations bars no jurisdiction" and precedented in the cases of Ortega-Rodriguez v. United States, 507 U.S. 234 (1993), Willie Evans, executor v. Lorillard Tobacco Company, 465 Mass. 411 (2013) et cetera.
- 05) That the first Defendant's actions qualify for lack of jurisprudential skill.
- 06) That the first Defendant's denial of the Plaintiff's Rule 60(b)(4) motion without a grain of reason typifies judicial discrimination and crass disrespect to the Plaintiff's Civil Rights.

- 07) That the first Defendant's actions lent themselves to intentional and negligent infliction of emotional distress as precedented in the case of Board of Regents of Univ. of State of NY v. Tomania, 446 US 478 (1980).
- 08) That the second Defendant was included in the proceedings for violation of the Plaintiff's Civil Right thus "Action for neglect to prevent" – 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1986 in keeping with her oath of office – defending, protecting and upholding the law of the land.
- 09) That the Defendants' actions qualify for deliberate indifference, unusual cruelty and constructive or covert condemnation of the Plaintiff to slavery in stark violation of the 13th Amendment [to the United States' Constitution]
- 10) That the Defendants were knowingly blind at the provision of the 14th Amendment Sec. 1.
- 11) That the first Defendant's crass professional negligence qualifies for anticipatory breach of social contract – calculated denial of Equal Protection as a Massachusetts' official.

PLAINTIFF DEMANDS FOR TRIAL BY JURY

[I]t is in keeping with the law, indeed! [Mass. Const. Art. 15 and Seventh Amendment]

RELIEF SOUGHT

Presently, they are two:

- 01) Total revocation of the first Defendant's order restricting the Plaintiff's unfettered access to the Middlesex Superior Court and
- 02) That any unfairly dismissed case of the Plaintiff the first Defendant presided over either at the Essex or Middlesex Superior Superior Courts in the past ten-year should be vacated and he should recuse himself from it or them voluntarily.

COMPENSATORY AND PUNITED DAMAGES

For the first Defendant, it will be $60m on individual capacity and $30m on official capacity.

On the second Defendant, it will be $10m on individual capacity and $15m on official capacity.

Cost and interest will be excluded.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This is a civil action in which the plaintiff apparently seeks millions of dollars in compensatory and punitive damages. The plaintiff represents himself and has filed an affidavit of indigency seeking a waiver of filing fees and of the fees or costs for serving the summons and complaint. While I will waive the filing fee for this matter, I deny the request for waiver of other fees and costs and dismiss the complaint for failure to plead sufficiently a cause of action under the standards set in Iannacchino v. Ford Motor Company, 451 Mass. 623 (2008).

The complaint fails to comply with the requirements of Mass.R.Civ.P. 8(a) in that it does not contain a short, plain statement of the claim showing that he is entitled to relief. The complaint fails to comply with the requirements of Mass.R.Civ.P. 8(e) in that each averment is not simple, concise, and direct. In addition, the complaint fails to comply with the pleading requirements of Iannacchino v. Ford Motor Company, 451 Mass. 623 (2008) in that it does not assert factual allegations plausibly suggesting an entitlement to relief. The complaint fails to set forth in an understandable fashion the causes of action which the plaintiff is seeking to bring or the factual bases for those causes of action. In addition, venue in Middlesex County is not appropriate, given the assertions of the parties' addresses. Furthermore, on the face of the complaint the statute of limitations expired long ago on claims related to a 2000 denial of a medallion.

While this Court does not normally review civil complaints at the time of their filing for the sufficiency of the causes of action pled therein, the volume of the litigation brought by this plaintiff in this county and in others and the nature and the viability of the claims asserted in these matters call for close scrutiny of the complaints filed by this plaintiff. The plaintiff has been ordered in this county and in others to submit new complaints for scrutiny by the Court before they are accepted for filing. The plaintiff is not precluded from filing any lawsuit which is properly pled and which is warranted by the facts; however, potential defendants and the Court should not have to endure litigation which is abusive, which is non-compliant with the Rules of Civil Procedure, or which fails to plausibly set forth a cause of action showing that he is entitled to the relief he seeks.

ORDER

For the foregoing reasons, the complaint of the plaintiff is DISMISSED.

ORDER

RE: CHUKWUMA AZUBUKO

Given Mr. Azubuko's history of filing frivolous and/or repetitious litigation here and in other counties within the Commonwealth I issue this order restricting his filing of future matters in this Court. Mr. Azubuko may not file any new civil action or complaint or claim in Middlesex Superior Court without the prior written approval of the Regional Administrative Justice for Civil Business or his/her designee. Before filing any new civil action or complaint or claim or the like, Mr. Azubuko must file a petition seeking leave of Court for such a filing. The petition must include a copy of this ORDER together with a copy of the document(s) sought to be filed. The documents shall be accepted by the clerk, date-stamped, and forwarded to the Regional Administrative Justice (or designee) who will approve or disapprove the petition in writing. A copy of this order is to be kept in the Clerk's Office and will be distributed to each of the civil session clerks here in Woburn.
